

16th ANNUAL FALL FESTIVAL

Saturday
October 10, 2009
9:30 AM – 4:00 PM

Map of Litchfield

Attic Treasures - You'll find a quality selection of decorative accessories, dishes & glassware, artwork, jewelry, linens, kitchenware & furnishings attractively displayed and reasonably priced.

Men's Depot - Workshop, garage, lawn and garden tools, motorized or otherwise.

Bakery - Delicious homemade breads, pies, brownies, cakes, cookies and muffins.

Café - Delicious Mardi Gras fare, deli items and beverages available next to the bakery from 10:00 until 2:00.

Book Store - The Meetinghouse basement has more than 14,000 gently used books including cookbooks, gardening, thrillers, novels, history, classics, crafts, travel, recent nonfiction, biography, sports, art, business, health and religion. Children's books, recorded books and large print books, too.

Children's Activities & Tag Sale - Especially for children, activities and lots of goodies for your small fry at the children's activities and tag sale.

Country Store - Always a hit, the general store offers a wide selection of homemade canned goodies, handcrafted clothing and decorative items, dried flowers and unique gifts. Don't miss our home made mixes for savory soups, dips and baked goods . . . a perfect beginning for your Christmas gift baskets.

International Mission Gift Shop - This popular church mission is a year-round boutique filled with unique handmade home accents, exotic jewelry, accessories, toys and Christmas items created by third-world artisans.

Silent Auction - Furniture, antiques, artwork, gift baskets, gift certificates and more. Be sure to watch the time . . . the auction ends at 3:00 PM.

History and Tradition - Be sure to visit the newly renovated 177 year old Meeting House to learn about its rich history and its traditions.

For Your Convenience . . .

